Sub: Household Project.- Launching of eFlowCAC Phase-II

Sir,

After the successful data processing of Houselisting and Housing Census, and Population Enumeration and release of Population Tables it is time to launch the next phase of the Form Processing Project.

This Circular marks the beginning of series of Circulars pertaining to EFLOW Phase-II project (EFLOW Phase-I refers to Houselist Project and Phase-II to Household Project [PCA part] and CACPhase-I Religion and SC/ST Items).

EFLOW Phase-III consists of two applications

- (i) CACPhase-II which deals with Computer Assisted Coding (CAC) of the descriptive items from Household schedule such as Mother Tongue, Other Languages and Level of Education which covers in SIDE A of the Schedule.
- (ii) CACPhase-III which deals with Computer Assisted Coding (CAC) of the items NIC & NCO and Migration which covers in SIDE A of the Schedule.

Initially the eFlow application CACPhase-II was released on 02-07-2013 and subsequently the production released on 15-07-2013. A training workshop was also conducted on 25th and 26th July 2013.

Attachments to this circular give salient features of CACPhase-II and operational instructions in particular. Norms and target days for completion of this phase etc. will be issued shortly.

Encl: as above

Yours faithfully,

(C. Chandramouli)

Registrar General & Census Commissioner, India
